By 1969 many of the Victor Value Shops had been rebranded Tesco and the name disappeared only to reappear in the 1980's when Tesco rebranded some of its Northern Stores "Victor Value" which is where Sandbach comes into the picture. In 1986 "Bejam" took over the stores from Tesco and rebranded them until they themselves were taken over in 1989 by Iceland. 1989/90 to date = Iceland. The company took out a 42-year lease on the 25 Dec 1997 for the building. (Started by Malcolm Walker and a friend they opened their first store in Oswestry in Shropshire in November 1970. By 1975 the idea of a Frozen Food supermarket had taken off and having been fired from jobs in Woolworth's in Feb 1971 they concentrated on their new project. By 1975 they had 15 Iceland Stores in North Wales and the North West. By 1980 the company had 37 stores and expanded further in 1984 when it bought out a number of smaller companies. In 2003 the parent company rebranded itself "The Big Food Company" as it went through a dark period of its history but slowly it built itself back up to its present position in the market place.) 22. EMPTY CLOSED	TOWN MILL The Town Mill was opened in 1825 by Thomas Bull to produce Velvet fustian cutting as well as his mill at the Commons

The Mill, High Street, Sandbach CW11 1AH 01270-753005	factory. The Town Mill was run by tenant Mr William Dumbrill (or William Durnbull). By 1896 (and 1902 Kelly's Directory / 1914 Reference) John Shepherd and Sons were in situ as a Fustian Cutters at both Scotch Common (Commons Mill) and Town Mill. With the decline of a market for Fustian Cutters the Town Mill was sold possibly in the 1920's to CONLOWE LTD. They were formed in 1924 under the name W.A. Lowe and Company Limited and was later the knitting division of the English Sewing Cotton Co Ltd which had eight factories in Cheshire and Staffordshire. Named after its founder William Kenneth Lowe (.b. July 1916) who started his manufacturing in Congleton (Congleton Lowe / Conlowe) In 1938 the Sandbach Mill was run under the name of Conlowe Ltd and was advertised as a Silk Manufacturer. By 1939 the company was advertising for sewers for the Conlowe Ltd factory in Sandbach working throughout the Second World War. On the 9 May 1947 W.A. Lowe Ltd became incorporated presumably into Conlowe (Company House records only show its incorporation until the company was dissolved on the 13 December 2000) In 1958 Conlowe became a subsidiary of the English Sewing Cotton Company. By 1966 the firm was manufacturing ladies and children's lingerie, dresses and suits sold under the brand names "Judy" (Girls' outerwear and lingerie), "Conlowe" (Ladies Lingerie) and "Tootal" (Dresses and suits for women). The company also produced fabric for their products and also for sale under the name "Condura". In 1967 (and 1969) the company advertised again for staff this time under the name English Sewing Ltd for their Knitting Department which was working alongside the ladies fashion. In 1971 the name Longton Fashions joined the list of brands being made out of the Town Mill. 1973 (and 1975) more staff were needed for Conlowe Ltd but by 1978 the name W.K. LOWE and CO LTD appeared on the building. By 1992 "W.K. Lowe and Co" was advertised as a 'Warehouse'. In June 2002 Cloverbrook purchased the company of W.K. C Underwear) Run by Edward Reeves and later run by his daughter Miss Reeves. 1955 = Sold to Elsie Ryder who married and became Mrs Broadhurst. According to one report the shop was demolished in 1947 to give the Lion a larger frontage. However, a report in the Liverpool Echo of the 22 February 1955 tells of a fire that day

	in the building caused by a spark setting fire to a beam in the building which destroyed hundreds of pounds worth of clothing stock and the building to be burnt out. Cardboard clothing boxes on the shelves and a display of frocks were reduced to charred fragments. A display of corded trousers and women's underwear in the window were only singed. The fire happened shortly after Midnight when Miss Rose Scutcheon who sleeps in a flat in the same building block as the lock up shop and was still awake contacted Mr Reginald Sergeant a clerk employed at an electrical contractor who also occupied part of the building. He was told that smoke was coming from the premises and as he was unable to gain access to the offices because of the dense smoke which was sweeping down the central stairway he rang the fire brigade. Firemen fought the blaze for over two hours and the fire was largely confined to the shop. Documents belonging to the electrical contractors were unharmed save for the water from the firemen's hoses. The Times Supply Stores are owned by Mrs Elsie Broadhurst of Hassall Road, Sandbach who has had the business for only a few months and rents the premises from Mrs Kate Williams of High Street, Sandbach.

(Was at 11a High Street) ##### HISTORY On the side of a building at 6 to 8 Crewe Road it is dated 1884 and it was at this address that Barclays Bank was situated. In April 2018, it was with great sadness that the news came to our attention that Barclays Bank in Sandbach was to close on the 20 July 2018 after 96 years in the town, the victim of Internet Banking and a change in policy for banks to move customers from buildings to the faceless On-line and phone banking with physical deposits and withdrawals being taken over by the local Post Offices. Formed on the 17 November 1690, in London when John Freame and Thomas Gould formed the Goldsmith Banking business which later took on a James Barclay the son in law of John Freame who became a named partner in the business in 1736. In 1728, the Goldsmith Bank moved to 54 Lombard Street and adopted the “Black Spread Eagle” logo which has stayed with the company ever since. Smaller banks, Backhouse’s Bank and Gurney’s Bank joined together to form the larger Barclays and Co Bank in 1896. Between 1905 and 1916, Barclays Bank acquired many small local English banks and in 1918 the bank acquired the London Provincial and South Western Bank, a year later in 1919 the British Linen Bank with the Mercantile Credit Union joining in 1975 and the Woolwich Building Society in 2000. On the 27 June 1967, Barclays deployed the world’s first Cash dispenser with “On the Busses” actor Reg Varney becoming the first to use the Cash Machine in their Enfield Branch. Between 2001 and 2016 Barclays sponsored the Premier League football. By 2018 the company had 4,750 branches in about 55 countries with 1,600 in the United Kingdom. Barclays Bank came to Sandbach on the 17 July 1922, when it opened its first building at 6 – 8 Crewe Road with its first mention in a local trade directory in 1933 when the other banks listed in the publication at the time in the town were the District Bank (Now the Nat West Bank), and the Sandbach Permanent Benefit Building Society (Meeting at the Literary Institute 1st Tues in the Month 6.30pm to 8pm c/o Mr Herbert Price - Secretary, Middlewich Road, Sandbach, the Sandbach Savings Bank (C Richardson – Actuary) at 10 High Town. There was also the Savings Bank – Sandbach Branch, Westminster Bank Ltd and the Williams Deacon’s Bank Ltd. By 1938, the Sandbach Barclays Bank was managed by Arthur A Goodwin and was still in Crewe Road. By 1943, Barclays Bank Ltd was joined on the streets of Sandbach by newcomers the Westminster Bank Ltd and Williams Deacon’s Bank Ltd with the other banks still in the town being the Savings Bank and the District Bank Ltd. By the 1960s’ a bigger bank was needed in the town and in 1965 the Cheshire Police decided to downsize from its Bold

	Street Police Station and moved to behind the Magistrates Court in Middlewich Road leaving a space in the road that could be filled by the bank. In February 1968 the bulldozers moved in to demolish the Police Station and work started on the new building to house Barclays Bank which had been designed by Architects “Green Lloyd and Sons” of London and opened on the 23 June 1969. Since then the bank has stayed pretty much the same in its design until 2018 with its closure. It is always sad when a part of the town closes down but this business is different than most as it is the last of the banks to have existed in Sandbach without having been taken over since the 1920’s.

134. EMPTY 1a Welles Street, Sandbach CW11 1GT 01270-529227	Primitive Methodist The first Primitive Methodist Church was built in 1832 in Union Street. In 1857, it was rebuilt in Welles Street as the Union Street Chapel and was considered out of the way. The land had been green fields until local lawyer Mr Latham drew up plans for a street of houses on the recommendation of Mr W Dean, he also secured a stone yard which was owned by Lord Crewe. The Church closed in 1950. It then became St Mary's Church hall and the stone work under the eaves of the building has the words St Mary's on it. 1960's = Breeden and Middleton (TV Shop) Named after Frank Middleton and Charley Breeden who opened their first shop in Edleston Road, Crewe (Breeden House) and by 1961 had a shop in Sandbach and in an advert from the Crewe Theatre dated 1969 a shop in High Street, Winsford. Pre 1992 = Fashion Footwear Centre (Shoe Shop). 1992? to 3 May 2020 = Debra Charity Shop.

	DEBRA CHARITY AND SHOP ##### 5 May 2020 POSSIBLE MOVE BY CHARITY SHOP Last week the Debra shop in Wells Street Sandbach, had a full window display with a sign on the door asking the public to keep hold of their unwanted items as they would be returning soon and the items could be dropped off after the Coronavirus shutdown was lifted. This week the window display has gone, the stock in the back room has disappeared and the sign's above the doors and windows have been taken down revealing the last occupant from the 1990's. Originally built as a Primitive Methodist Church in 1857 after it had been formed in 1832 in a building in Union Street. The Church closed in 1950 and then it became St Mary's Church Hall, with stone work under the eaves of the building having the words St Mary's on it. In the 1960's, Frank Middleton and Charley Breeden opened their first shop in Edleston Road, Crewe (Breeden House) and by 1961, had opened a Breeden and Middleton shop in Sandbach. By the 1980's and 1990's the venue had become the home of the Fashion Footwear Centre (Shoe Shop) and then about 1992, the Debra Charity Shop arrived in the town. The charity was formed in the UK in 1978 by Phillis Hilton and was named after her daughter to help fund research and to help those who suffer from a skin cancer called 'Epidermolysis Bullosa'. The Sandbach shop has gained a good reputation for its window displays which not only showed off its stock but also reflected local events including the annual transport festival. Staff have always been helpful and were always ready to listen to customers problems, sometimes with a cup of tea. Some remember having sympathetic conversations with the staff after they had recently lost relatives and the friendly chat and comfort, they gave them was very welcome. In 2015, Joan Owen was awarded the Sandbach Rotary Club, Citizen of the Year award for her voluntary work in the town including her time in the Debra shop. On the 22 March 2020 Debra closed its 100 shops for at least the next two weeks which was then updated on the 1 May with a closed until further notice on their website. Local social media suggests that the Sandbach shops closure was due to the lease on the building being due for renewal and the landlord has not extended it for the charity as he has decided to turn the shop into two smaller units. It is also rumoured that the Debra shop is moving into the old Demeter's shop on the corner of Wells Street and Bold Street. An E Mail enquiry to Linsey White at the charity has confirmed that "Sadly have had to close the Sandbach store as the shop lease was coming to an end. We are actively looking for replacement premises in Sandbach and hope to reopen another store. The local community have been hugely supportive and I would like to thank every customer and volunteer who supported DEBRA at Sandbach". Let us hope that this is not the first shop casualty of the Coronavirus era in Sandbach and that the Debra shop will return as soon as possible after the national shutdown is over. ##### 3 May 2020 to Date = Empty

162. Military Arms The Commons, Congleton Road, Sandbach CW11 4QD 01270-765442	HISTORY The first report I can find of the Military Arms was from 1927 (10 Sept) when a bike was stolen from outside the building. In 1926 there was an unconfirmed report of a Mr James Lynen as landlord. ##### After many years of the sign outside depicting a soldier in various uniforms in 2021 the sign changed to a gray background depicting an acorn and oak leaf. The image is connected to the Cheshire Regiment and was started on the 27 June 1743 when King George III was saved by members of the Duke of Norfolk's Regiment of Foot (Later becoming the Cheshire Regiment and the Mercian Regiment) from the French attackers. As a token of thanks the King picked a leaf from an oak tree and gave it to one of the soldiers. The Cheshire's from that day onwards wear a sprig of oak leaves while in the presence of a member of the Royal Family. Another suggestion for the Oak Leaf is that it was in the Arms of the Duke of Norfolk who formed the regiment along with the Suffolk Regiment which also uses the oak leaf in its badge this time in a wreath formation. Formed in 1689 as the Duke of Norfolk's Regiment of Foot. In 1747 the regiment was known as the 22nd Foot. In 1782 it was renamed the 22nd (The Cheshire) Regiment of Foot and in 1858 a 2nd Battalion was raised. In 1881 the two regiments were amalgamated into the Cheshire Regiment with the cap badge showing the Prince of Wales Plumes on an eight sided star. In 1898 the headdress was changed and a new badge was issued still with the eight sided star but the Prince of Wales Plumes were exchanged for an Acorn displayed vertically between Oak leaves. This badge was kept by the regiment until 1922. In 1922 the badge became just the star with a circle and the name of the regiment on it with central oak motif. In 1958 the regiment was merged into the Mercian Brigade and were expected to wear their badge. In 1970 the Brigade was dissolved but retained its Cheshire Regiment independence and badge. In 2007 they were formed into the Mercian Brigade with the Cheshire's becoming the 1st Battalion the Mercian Regiment (Cheshire) adopting their badge. LANDLORD 1936-8+ = Herbert Harrison (Ex player with Foden's Band) (wife Florence Harrison nee Dunning who was one of the first female drivers of the Sandbach Fire Engine)

EXTRA COMMONS MILL	Built in 1843 (or 1850) for Velvet Fusion Cutting "The Commons Mill" or "Newfield Silk Mill", which was built by Thomas Bull for mill owner John Woolley (.b. Unkn .d. 27 Aug 1863 aged 80 years) who also had built "Field House" (40 Congleton Road, Near the Ambulance Station) for him to live in. The building later became a Cottage Hospital, Employment exchange, "Field House" and Undertakers. The mill was built in 1843 at a cost of £888.00. In 1853 it was first used to spin silk. In 1860 the mill was let to Mr William Damsbrell In Kelly's Directories 1896 and 1902. John Shepherd and Sons were Fustian Cutters at the Scotch Commons and Town Mill, Sandbach. One story about the factory is that during World War 2 the American Troops used it as a base with its Generals living at the Old Hall. Another story is that at one time the building caught fire. With the fire station over the road you would have thought that their appliance would attend the incident and indeed the crew were called out to the "Shout" but the appliance developed a fault and wouldn't leave the Fire Station so while crew's from the whole of Cheshire attended the fire, Sandbach was unable to assist. By the 1980's the building had been abandoned and in 1982 the building was demolished. The area is now residential bungalows.

ETTLEY HEATH
EXTRA BARGAIN BOOZE	The Bargain Booze business was founded in by Alan Whittle and Robert Mayor (or Mayer) in Sandbach in a shed like building off Moss Lane, Ettley Heath (Now Demolished) where the company sold beer at a low price with special offers for large parties and events, as well as a sale or return scheme for customers including the Sandbach Players who would also hire on a sale or return (Breakages) basis the glasses to serve the drinks in during an event. In 1988 the business expanded with its first Franchise business opening along with the new look red fascia being used for the first time. In January 2000, Alan Whittle and Robert Mayor sold the company to "BWG Foods" who in July 2002 was bought out by "Electra Partners". In 2006, a management buyout backed by a private equity firm called ECI Partners took over Bargain Booze for £63.5 Million. By 2010, Bargain Booze was the largest Off-licence chain in the UK with over 611 shops after the collapse of the First Quench Retailing Group who owned the "Threshers" stores in November 2010. In 2013, Bargain Booze acquired the Wine Rack Company which has 22 outlets mainly in the London Area and South East. In 2013 the company was sold to Conviviality (Incorporated on the 26 August 2015) who at the time had owned the Wine Rack chain. 2013 was also the year the company launched its first TV Ad campaign at Christmas (First shown on ITV on the 10 December) which offered all its customers a Free Scotch Egg as its advert parodied the Ambassadors reception adverts of "Ferrero Rocher" with northern actors saying the Ambassador was spoiling them with a Scotch Egg. In December 2017, Bargain Booze / Conviviality acquired the Central Convenience Stores from "Palmer and Harvey" In 2018 after purchasing Central Convenience, the result was that Conviviality was unable to pay in advance for stock for its stores and the suppliers pulled the plug on the company forcing it into administration on the 6 April 2018 when Price Waterhouse Coopers were appointed. The company had shown signs of trouble earlier in the year when they announced a profit warning on the 8 March 2018 after discovering a "Material error in its financial forecasts". This bad accounting meant that the company would only make £5.2 Million less than it had forecast but the share price plummeted down by over 65% to virtually Zero. The Company also announced it had miscalculated its TAX and the Tax man was now demanding an extra £30 Million on the 14 March leading to the company shares being suspended and was later taken off the Stock Market. On the 19 March 2018, CEO Diana Hunter resigned from her post but was kept on as an adviser. This followed on from other changes in January 2018 and October 2017 when Andrew Humphrey's resigned as CFO with Mark Moran taking his place. Supply problems meant that shops were rapidly running out of stock and distributors Matthew Clark were unable to supply J D Wetherspoon establishments causing many to think about closing if only on a temporary basis until a new supplier could be found. On the 4 April Magners Cider, C and C Group along with AB InBEv acquired "Matthew Clark", "Bebendum" and their other subsidiaries. 'Bestway' acquired the Bargain Booze and Wine Rack shops from Conviviality on the 6 April 2018 in a £7.2 million deal for a company with a turnover of £0.5 billion. COMPANIES RUN BY BB / Conviviality Bargain Booze (Sold to Bestways on the 6 April 2018) Bibendum (Specialist Wine Merchants - Sold 4 April 2018 to Magners)

	Cider, C and C Group along with AB InBEv) Central Convenience (127 Stores acquired in Dec 2017 for £30 Million) Conviviality Brands Limited Conviviality Direct Conviviality Retail Logistics Ltd GT News (Holdings) Ltd KMO Enterprises Matthew Clark (Supplier to J D Wetherspoon - Sold 4 April 2018 to Magners Cider, C and C Group along with AB InBEv) Select Convenience Wine Rack (Sold to Bestways on the 6 April 2018) 300 Franchises /800 Stores / 2 Warehouses (Crewe and Newcastle under Lyme) BESTWAYS Founded in 1976 by Anwar Pervez in Acton, West London with his first wholesale warehouse. A second warehouse in Southall followed in 1981, Hackney in 1983 and by 2010 had 37 warehouses including Stoke on Trent, Liverpool, Derby, Manchester and Cardiff. In July 2014 the company acquired the Co-operative group of pharmacy and rebranding them as WELL Pharmacy By 2018 it is the second largest wholesaler serving 125,000 independent retailers and caterers from 64 warehouses across the country. By 2018, it has become the eighth largest privately-owned company and has since acquired the Bargain Booze and Wine Rack shops from Conviviality on the 6 April 2018, officially taking over in September / October 2018 after working with administrators to make it a profitable business to take over. This was done under the “Pre-Pack Administration Process” which allows “Bestways” to cherry pick the profitable parts of the business rather than taking on all the liabilities. Price Waterhouse Coopers said at the time that, “this would safeguard 2,000 employees, ensure franchises have the ability to continue to trade and create stability for business customers and the sector in general”. COMPANIES RUN BY BESTWAYS Bestway Bestway Cement (Pakistan Company) Bestway Foodservice (For Caterers and hospitality trade) Best One (1,113 Franchise convenience stores) Bestway Wholesalers United Bank Limited (Pakistan Bank 2nd largest Private Bank) Well Pharmacy (3rd Largest Pharmacy Business in the UK) In August 2021 Bestways decided to sell of all of the stores bought under the Bargain Booze brand with the option for retailers to purchase their stores and have them rebranded under franchise agreements.

(1977) (1989) 2024 to Date	WILL'S BUTCHERS (See BUTCHERS BLADE)	The Family Business opened in 1977 and is now situated under the arches of the Town Hall, Sandbach. Run by Will and Karen Shingler, Will Shingler started in 1974 as an assistant in Vervloets in Congleton. He then moved to Prestbury in 1978 before going back to Congleton for a short while. In 1979 Will worked for "Wakefields" of Sandbach. In 1989 Mr Will Shingler took over the family (Wakefield's) business and renamed it "Will's Butchers". With rising costs of renting a building the business moved to the shop in the Town Hall and trades 6 days a week. They sell the usual meats plus "Game" when in Season. On the 27 January 2024 the business was sold and Will and his wife Karen retired. Stff included Jonny Chafe and Jack Haynes. 10 Feb 2024 to Date = "Butchers Blade" Lee Ashcroft (Butchers) CONTACT 01270-762015 (Tbc) STOCK Bacon, Beef, Chicken, Lamb, Pork, Sausages and Black Pudding.

#07d. SATURDAY “MAKER’S MARKET” 2015

The Makers Market has a number of venues around the North West with Sandbach joining the list in 2015 after the Council decided it couldn't continue to run its own monthly Saturday Market / Farmers Market.

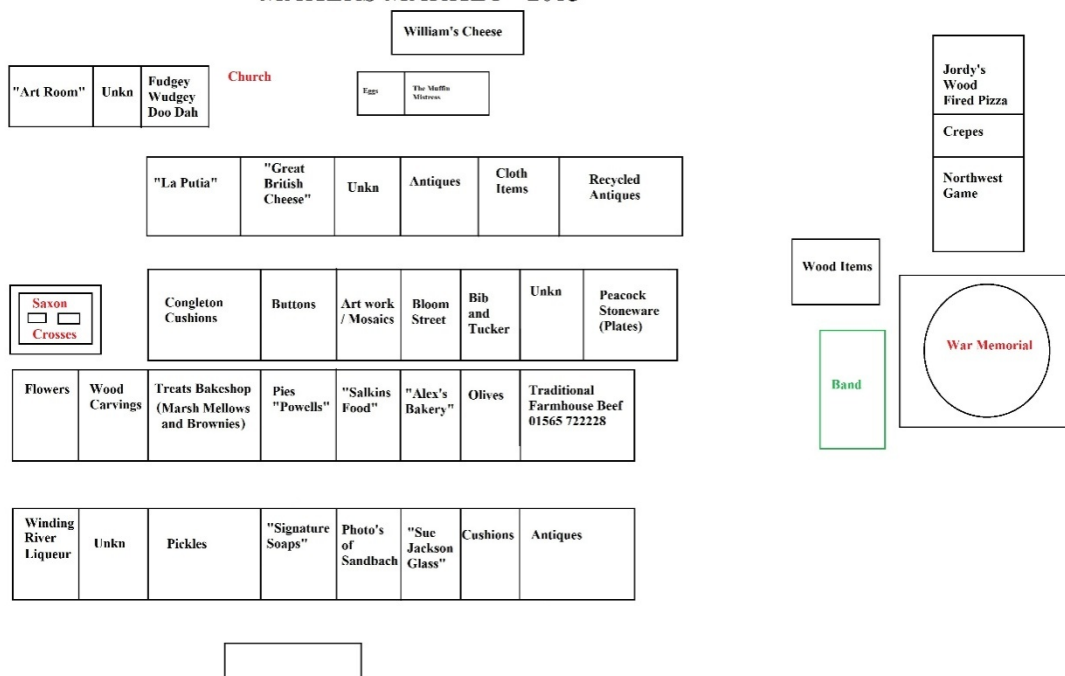

In May 2017 stalls in Middlewich were at such a low number the company decided to close this venue.
