PUBLIC HOUSE HISTORY

#####

ANCIENT BRITON

Ancient Briton – 93 Congleton Road, Sandbach. 1800

(2015 Picture)

Described in a local history book as a prominent coaching house, the grounds still have a building that has two stable doors. The original deeds refer to one of the first occupants of the building as a bricklayer possibly at the Brick House further down Congleton Road (Arclid side of the M6)

The land was owned by Robert Offley Ashburton the 1st Marques of Crewe.

In the late 1880's at a cost of about £150, Edwin Foden built a well at the house to help with the town's water shortage but the well produced undrinkable water and so was a failure.

(Thanks to Rob Bloom, research 2006 to 2020)

The 1881 Census shows the house was occupied by William Cowley and Lavinia Hedge who married in 1867.

By 1881 the house was occupied as follows.

William Cowley (.b. Sandbach 1844) Shoemaker (Journeyman)

Lavinia Cowley (.b. 1845)

William E Cowley (.b. Sandbach 1868)

Mary Ann Cowley (.b. Sandbach 1871)

John Jas. Cowley (.b. Sandbach 1873)

Fred Cowley (.b. Sandbach 1877)

Lizzie Cowley (.b. Sandbach 1880)

BEAR'S PAW

Bear's Paw (Also known as the Bear's Foot in 1834) – School Lane, Warmingham, Sandbach CW11 3QN 01270-526317

The Bear's Paw is a 19th Century Building with the Heraldry Symbol based on the coat of arms of the Scudamore or Savage family depicting a bears paw coming out of a crown. It is possible that they were in some way connected to the Sport of Bar Bating a barbaric practice now outlawed but was practiced in Sandbach, Brereton and Congleton.

The Scudamore family were based in Devon, Somerset and Derbyshire they moved north to Warrington and Knutton in Cheshire in the 1880's. Some members of the family were born in Over Walton Manor nr Warrington Cheshire.

The Savage family was an important land owner in the 1370's, when they acquired Clifton by the marriage of John Savage (.D. 1386) to Margaret Danyers. Their son Sir John Savage (.D. 1597-8) was the Mayor of Chester and the High Sheriff of Cheshire and built Rocksavage on the hillside looking over the River Weaver.

Houses at Rose Cottage, Tetton Lane and next to the Bears Paw have the coat of arms of a Bears Paw in a Crown on the front of the building.

In the 1940's John St Clair Peebles Moreton (Known as Jack Moreton) of the 8th Army visited the Bears Paw for a meal and kept the Menu which consisted of the following.

Hors D'Oeuvre

Petite Marmite or Cream of Tomatoes

Fried Fillet with Lemon sole Tartare

Touranedos Dubarry with Cauliflower Mornay and Fried Potatoes

Meringue Glaces
Cheese and Biscuits
Coffee

A Fire on the 28 May 2008 destroyed part of the building during renovations which closed the building for a year.
It was reopened on the 20 May 2009.

THE LIMES

The Limes – 3 Sweettooth Lane, Sandbach 01270-763506

Opened in 1840 on land owned by Lord Crewe it was occupied by James Hilditch and was known as the Sweet Tooth Plot.

By 1895 the Limes had become the venue for cattle auctions selling Calves foot yearling Heifer Bull's and Mares

Sport has always played its part at the Limes. Bowling has taken place for many years at the Limes on its own green with the local team taking part in the Norman Cup but they have never come in the first three. Other local teams from the Marriott House (Park) and Foden's Recreation also took part in the competition. By August 1988 the green had become floodlit and staged competitions starting at 6pm with a £120 first prize. In 1993 the venue held the finals of the Sandbach Bowls league.

In August 1969 the Imperial team of women beat the Limes (Sandbach) team 2 -0 in the Semi Finals of a local Cheshire competition.

In July 1955 the 14th South West Scouts held their Garden Party at the venue by kind permission of Mr and Mrs F Lea and was opened at 3pm by Mrs Charles Bickmore the Cheshire County Commissioner.

In April 1965 the Limes was updated with materials supplied by A.J. Moss and Co. Ltd of Hanley and by June it became an IND Coope licensed pub and was open for wedding parties and catering.

In the summer of 2016 the bars were totally refurbished.

On the 24 December 2016 the pub staged "Lost in the Mist" a music extravaganza with "Bouncing" Bob, "Quality" Dave, "Lovely" Symone and special guest guitar wizard Roy Rawlinson playing blues and folk music.

On the 12 July 2019 Teri Taylor took over the Limes pub as landlady. She introduced music to the venue again including singer Rebecca Louise Holland (July 2017)

In February 2019 the building was up for sale with Jeremy Rubin and Co for £375,000 plus VAT.

In January 2020 the Limes closed for the last time.

In September 2021, an application was put into Cheshire East to demolish the building to make way for a 60 bed care home by Newcastle based Crown Care Group who own 19 homes already. Plans submitted to the Council included the keeping of the bowling green and new facilities linked to the care home and would be available to the community.

In March 2022 vandals again hit the Bowling Club premises.

2022 Season last to be played at the Limes location

On the 10 May 2023 the Sandbach Police Community Support officers were called to the Limes location after reports of anti-social behaviour.

On the 31 May 2023 at 5.57am fire fighters were called to the "Limes" after smoke was seen coming out of the roof. Soon appliances from Crewe, Congleton, Alsager, Middlewich and the aerial ladder platform from Lymm station arrived on the scene. Sweettooth Lane was closed to traffic until 8am with appliances damping down the building

In August 2023 the Council approved the demolishing of the building to make way for an old peoples residence. The plans also included the restoration of the bowling green.

MILITARY ARMS

Military Arms – The Common, Congleton Road, Sandbach 01270-765442

HISTORY
The first report I can find of the Military Arms was from 1927 (10 Sept) when a bike was stolen from outside the building.

In 1926 there was an unconfirmed report of a Mr James Lynen as landlord.

After many years of the sign outside depicting a soldier in various uniforms in 2021 the sign changed to a grey background depicting an acorn and oak leaf.

The image is connected to the Cheshire Regiment and was started on the 27 June 1743 when King George III was saved by members of the Duke of Norfolk’s Regiment of Foot (Later becoming the Cheshire Regiment and the Mercian Regiment) from the French attackers. As a token of thanks the King picked a leaf from an oak tree and gave it to one of the soldiers. The Cheshire’s from that day onwards wear a sprig of oak leaves while in the presence of a member of the Royal Family.

Another suggestion for the Oak Leaf is that it was in the Arms of the Duke of Norfolk who formed the regiment along with the Suffolk Regiment which also uses the oak leaf in its badge this time in a wreath formation.

Formed in 1689 as the Duke of Norfolk’s Regiment of Foot.
In 1747 the regiment was known as the 22nd Foot.
In 1782 it was renamed the 22nd (The Cheshire) Regiment of Foot and in 1858 a 2nd Battalion was raised.

In 1881 the two regiments were amalgamated into the Cheshire Regiment with the cap badge showing the Prince of Wales Plumes on an eight sided star.
In 1898 the headdress was changed and a new badge was issued still with the eight sided star but the Prince of Wales Plumes were exchanged for an Acorn displayed vertically between Oak leaves. This badge was kept by the regiment until 1922.
In 1922 the badge became just the star with a circle and the name of the regiment on it with central oak motif.
In 1958 the regiment was merged into the Mercian Brigade and were expected to wear their badge.
In 1970 the Brigade was dissolved but retained its Cheshire Regiment independence and badge.
In 2007 they were formed into the Mercian Brigade with the Cheshire's becoming the 1st Battalion the Mercian Regiment (Cheshire) adopting their badge.

Rose and Crown / ZEST Indian Restaurant in Arclid

(Alton and Co Ltd owned the pub at some time)

As bulldozers move into Arclid to demolish another historic pub in South Cheshire here is a brief look at the history of the Rose and Crown or Zest Indian Restaurant as it was before it's flattening.
In 1845 the Congleton Union Workhouse was built at a cost of £7,097. Later the site became a hospital but in 1845 this red brick building would hold 358 inmates. In 1900 Mr Alfred Price an architect from Elworth helped to design and build a new infirmary which was overseen by Mr John Young (Master), The Rev Charles Edward Muckleston and Medical Officer Robert Riddell. In 1930 the infirmary was renamed the Congleton Public Assistance Institution and was later that decade renamed the Arclid Hospital which closed in 1993 and was demolished. During its life it would have provided a regular clientele for the Rose and Crown pub next door.
The date of the public house or Inn building is unknown but it is mentioned in a local newspaper of the 26 June 1852 when Mr William Yates the son of Mr Thomas Yates the landlord of the Rose and Crown Inn in Arclid married Miss Maria Fox of Sandbach.
The Inn is also mentioned in a newspaper of the 19 March 1853, when an auction was held at the Rose and Crown the home of Thomas Yates on the 21 March. There was also a report in the 16 November 1861 newspaper when more land in Smallwood was sold at auction and again in the 2 June 1866 newspaper when Julia Yates the daughter of Thomas Yates of the Rose and Crown died at the young age of 27 on the 27 of May after a short illness.
In 1866 the Inn was also used as a coroner's court when an inquest was held into the death of Ann Lees aged 35 who had died when her father's cart had been upset while she was riding in it.
In May 1874 Henry Yates the landlord of the Rose and Crown was fined for permitting drunkenness in his house on the 3rd May.
In 1874 land was again sold in Smallwood with the auction being held at the Rose and Crown, Arclid on the 22 of September 1874 by Mr J.C. Hilditch.

The Ordnance Survey map from 1875 shows the building as the Rose and Crown with a later map in the early 1900's showing the site as the Workhouse Inn.

In 1878 Henry Yates the landlord of the Rose and Crown was fined for serving a pint of gin to Superintendent Rowbottom on the 22 February containing an illegal substance.

In 1886 Mr William Hilditch held an auction at the Rose and Crown.

By 1914, Kelly's Directory lists it again as the Rose and Crown public house with Fred Peover as its owner and also a local builder.

In January 1915 it was reported that Mrs Hannah Peover had died at the age of 76 (or 78 depending on the newspaper report). She had been a resident of the Rose and Crown since 1878 (37 years) and was a former licensee of the premises.

A report in the 29 November 1921 Sheffield Independent reported that after the sale of the inn and having been given notice to quit the building the landlord of the Rose and Crown, Frederick Peover was found hanging from the roof of the outhouse the previous day by his wife.

In September 1926 solicitors Mr H.P. Rigby made an application to place two bay windows in the front of the building facing the road to extend the smoking room, kitchen and scullery.

On the 29 December 1926, Samuel Roy Williamson was born, one of nine children, eight boys and one girl. His father was the owner of the Rose and Crown and Sam learnt to play the piano in the pub.

In August 1948 there was a new look to the Rose and Crown after it had been redecorated and it now provided luncheons, teas, residential and room for large or small parties. You could also book your Christmas Dinner in December 1948.

In October 1953, Ind Coope Allsopp (Pub Owners) applied for structural alterations to the Rose and Crown Arclid which were granted by the local council.

In 1958 the pub advertised an enjoyable evening with the music of Don Avril at the piano and Clavioline (Early electronic piano).

On the 29 August 1959 a British Road Services articulated lorry crashed into the public bar at the Rose and Crown 15 minutes before opening time on the Saturday.

In 1977 there was live rock at the public house in March of that year.

On the 25 March 1979 the Congleton Pool League was formed and it would include a team from the Rose and Crown.

In February 1982 music at the pub was provided by Johnathan Gold every Friday.

By 1983 the landlord of the Rose and Crown were Dennis and June O'Donovan who had owned the Lamb Inn at Sutton.

In 2006 it was still named the Rose and Crown and had recently been refurbished according to reports on social media.

In 2008 and also pictured on Google Maps in March 2009 the building was named the 'Garlic Press' an Italian restaurant.

In 2010 the building started the year as an 'Italian Restaurant' but by the 28 January a review on a Beer website said it had changed to a curry house.

In 2011 it was named the Zest Indian Restaurant and was painted white but by 2015 the outside had been painted brown.

By 2016 the restaurant had a resident entertainer in the shape of tribute act "Patelvis" (Elvis Presley Tribute) who was advertised on a banner on the front of the building until the day it closed.

On the 26 April 2017, Sir Anam Ul Islam of Jahanara Bhavan, Brereton Heath Lane, Congleton filed with Companies House, 'Zest Arclid Ltd' issuing 1 share.

On the 15 March 2019, Mr Beliavicus Beliackas Voldermars (born in Lithuania in 1981) was appointed as a director to the company and General Manager of Zest. On the 18 March 2019, Sir Anam Ul Islam resigned as secretary of the company and handed over control of the restaurant to Mr Voldermars.

In 2019 the colour scheme again changed and it was painted dark gray.

On the 31 March 2020 the Registrar of Companies gave notice that the Company would be struck off the register and dissolved less than two months from the date of issue with the assets deemed to be bona vacantia and they will belong to the crown who will then sell off the property to pay any debts owed to the Government. In May 2020 this was suspended but the Indian Restaurant closed its doors for the last time.

In May 2021 the building was sold for £450,000 and on the 17 June 2022 the company was finally struck off and was dissolved on the 28 June 2022.

Plans were put forward by Charlotte Properties to knock down the restaurant and build 12 apartments with parking spaces for 26 cars with a new access point from the A534. Objections to the development included the fact that its building would impair the efficiency of the Jodrell Bank Radio Telescope but as there are many new developments between the telescope and Arclid it seems impossible to have such an effect. This objection is due to the area being included in a Jodrell Bank Radio Telescope Consultation Area which instantly puts this objection to any development that comes before Cheshire East and is usually dismissed this far away from the scientists once it is looked at in detail. However, in December 2022 Cheshire East Council turned down the application and the owners put the site up for sale as a cleared site which was submitted as a separate application to the Council. Submitting comments on a new application 23/1652C ended on the 31 May 2023 when the Planning Officer under delegated authority would make their decision.

On the 3 July 2023 bulldozers moved in to demolish the building ending the history of another landmark in Arclid and the Sandbach Area.

EXTRA INFORMATION

Ordinary Seaman P/JX 624955 Richard Ernest Ayres who before 1939 worked at the Foden Motor Works in Elworth, Sandbach was one of those killed onboard HMS Trollope when it was sunk in July 1944 and was part of the D Day operation in June 1944.

H.M.S. TROLLOPE was built in the Bethlehem-Hingham Shipyard, Hingham in Massachusetts, USA and was "Laid Down" or the Laying of the Keel (Formal start of the construction) on the 29 September 1943 as an Un-named U.S. Destroyer escort DE-566 and was launched on the 20 November 1943 with its complete fitting being signed off on the 10 January 1944 when it was also transferred to the British Navy as a Frigate under the command of Lieutenant Commander Harry Westacott RN with compliment of 186 sailors. Named after Admiral Sir Henry Trollope (1756-1839 who commanded the HMS Russell at the Battle of Camperdown in 1797) as H.M.S. Trollope (K575) it was a patrol and escort ship in the English Channel.

The boats first job was to support a convoy off Selsey Bill when it was attacked by a number of E Boats and HMS Trollope went to assist one of those sunk on the 12-13 May 1944 by recovering the sailors from the sea with many of the crew seeing the damage done by cannon fire both on the boats and the men they took out of the water.

HMS Trollope was one of the ships that supported the Invasion of Normandy / Operation Overlord / D Day on the 6 June 1944. It was sent to the port of Sheerness and along with HMS Stayner, HMS Thornborough, HMS Duff, HMS Torrington, HMS Retalick and a destroyer set sail as part of the screening force for the eastern flank of the assault force who arrived after the first wave hand landed in Normandy. With E Boats sinking some of the ships HMS Trollope was tasked with illuminating them while other ships used their guns to sink the German boats. HMS Trollope had her first triumph when two E Boats were repeatedly hit by it and burst into flames before sinking.

On the 27 June 1944 the Trollope was on Patrol off Cope D'Antifer near the Cherbourg E Boat Pen. The E Boats left their pens to retreat back to Le Havre followed by HMS Trollope and various MGB's who made contact with the Germans at about 1am with the MGB's engaging the enemy as they were very close to the shore-line.

The next trip for HMS Trollope was back to dock for its three-monthly boiler clean which took it out of action for a week until the 5 July 1944 when it returned to patrol. The Trollope was again off the Cope D'Antifer when it again engaged with E Boats trying to get back to Le Havre with the result that the E Boats were forced back to Dieppe.

However, on the 6 July 1944 the ship was in the area of North Tunney in the Seine Bay along with the 1st DF Destroyers HMS Stevenstone and La Combattante. It was at this time that HMS Trollope was either torpedoed by a German S Boat / E Boat / motor torpedo boat or ran aground near Arromaches-les-Baines, 10 miles off the coast of France at 1.30am.

After a large explosion on the ship the Trollope's bow was broken into two killing a number of the crew and becoming a hazard to other vessels. The Stevenstone immediately started to pick up survivors and wounded with the bow section now still afloat but on its back the La Combattante sailed in and sunk it with gunfire. Thirty crew men were wounded with 63-65 of the crew killed at this time including its Commander Lt. Cdr. Harry Westacott, RN C.O., Lt Frank Battersby, RN. Sub-Lt David H Montgomery RNVR, Gunnery Officer Sub Lt. Frederick A Brazier RNVR (Royal Navy Voluntary Reserves), RNVR Navigation Officer Sub Lt. John E Auvache, RNVS Asdic's Officer Sub Lt. Alan Michie RNVR.

Surviving Officers of HMS Trollope were Lt. Richard Pitt R.N., First Officer Lt Cdr Johnston RNR the Chief Engineer. It was decided to tow the rest of the boat nearer to the French beach of Arromanches-les-Bains where it was run aground to allow its soldiers on board to disembark. The boat was then taken back to its harbour where it was declared a constructive total loss. On the 10 October 1944 the boat was officially returned to the U.S. Navy who in 1947 sold the vessel for scrap to John Lee of Belfast who sent it to Scotland to be dismantled in 1951.

CHAP. XXI.

How the province of the Midland Angles became Christian under King Peada. [653 A.D.]

At this time, the Middle Angles, that is, the Angles of the Midland Country (probably Leicestershire) under their Prince Peada, the son of King Penda, received the faith and mysteries of the truth. Being an excellent youth and most worthy of the name and office of a king, he was by his father elevated to the throne of that nation and came to Oswy, King of the Northumbrians, requesting to have his daughter Aichfled given him to wife; but he could not obtain his desire unless he would receive the faith of Christ and be baptized, with the nation which he governed. When he heard the preaching of the truth, the promise of the heavenly kingdom and the hope of resurrection and future immortality, he declared that he would willingly become a Christian, even though he should not obtain the maiden; being chiefly prevailed on to receive the faith by King Oswy's son Alchfrid, who was his brother-in-law and friend, for he had married his sister Cyneburg, 3 the daughter of King Penda.

Accordingly, he was baptized by Bishop Finan, with all his nobles and thegns and their servants, that came along with him, at a noted township, belonging to the king, called At the Wall. And having received four priests, who by reason of their learning and good life were deemed proper to instruct and baptize his nation, he returned home with much joy. These priests were Cedd and Adda and Betti and Diuma; the last of whom was by nation a Scot, the others English. Adda was brother to Utta, whom we have mentioned before, a renowned priest and abbot of the monastery which is called At the Goat's Head.⁸The aforesaid priests, arriving in the province with the prince, preached the Word and were heard willingly; and many, as well of the nobility as the common sort, renouncing the abominations of idolatry, were daily washed in the fountain of the faith.

Nor did King Penda forbid the preaching of the Word even among his people, the Mercians, if any were willing to hear it; but, on the contrary, he hated and despised those whom he perceived to be without the works of faith, when they had once received the faith of Christ, saying, that they were contemptible and wretched who scorned to obey their God, in whom they believed. These things were set on foot two years before the death of King Penda.

But when he was slain and the most Christian King, Oswy, succeeded him in the throne, as we shall hereafter relate, Diuma, one of the aforesaid four priests, was made bishop of the Midland Angles, as also of the Mercians, being ordained by Bishop Finan; for the scarcity of priests made it necessary that one prelate should be set over two nations. Having in a short time gained many people to the Lord, he died among the Midland Angles, in the country called Infepingum; and Ceollach, also of the Scottish nation, succeeded him in the bishopric. But he, not long after, left his bishopric and returned to the island of Hii, which, among the Scots, was the chief and head of many monasteries. His successor in the bishopric was Trumhere, a godly man and trained in the monastic life, an Englishman, but ordained bishop by the Scots. This happened in the days of King Wulfhere, of whom we shall speak hereafter.
